Thank you so much for helping me learn throughout this semester, you are an amazing lecturer and person. I enjoyed all the times at office hours, not just doing math problems, but the times where you talked to get know you students better. It really does mean a lot when lecturers put in that extra effort to get to know their students, so I really appreciate that about you and thank you again, you are by far my favorite professor I've had so far! :)
I thought Dr.Rudman is a phenomenal professor. She asks too often if simple parts of questions are "ok" and understandable. I really like that she is trying to make everything understandable, but it gets annoying after a while.
I've never seen a professor prior that cared this much for this many students. Along with being able to explain concepts well and being available for questions, whatever kind, she was able to make us feel appreciated as despite having 200+ students in the class, she remembers our names and makes an effort to genuinely support us.
Dr. Rudman is an amazing lecturer! She explains things so well and always makes tricky concepts so much easier to understand. Not only that, but she is always extremely helpful to students one-on-one and you can really tell she cares that her students understand the material and will go above and beyond to make sure that we succeed. Great job.
Incredible. She puts forth effort and is very realistic. Explain everything thoroughly and go through each step, ensuring everyone follows along as needed. Excellent teaching. Strongest math teacher I've had yet.
One of the best professors for 1172

Professor Rudman is an excellent professor with what she has been given. But Jim Talamo is a disgrace to the entire world of academia and should never be referred to as an educator unless it is April Fool's day.
Great professor, really goes out of her way to make everyone included which really increases enjoyment
One of the best professors I have had yet.
She responds to emails quickly and in lectures thoroughly works through problems. It really shows she wants you to succeed
Very enthusiastic every day and one of the most considerate professors I've had at OSU.
Great professor and actually wanted to learn everyone's names. Put complicated math into simple terms that everyone was able to understand. 10/10 professor.
Dr. Rudman was one of the best professors I have ever had. The way she taught, slow, and methodical was very beneficial. I appreciate that she took the time to recap lecture videos, to make sure the group understood fully what was said in the videos. Dr. Rudman taught Math 1172 outstandingly well.
She's the best professor I've had while at Ohio state
Though I missed more of her class than I should have this semester, she was super helpful and I always felt like I was learning a lot in the class.
I love how you come the class with full of enthusiasm, energetic and inspiring. The way you explain each problems and new materials are easy-to-understand and simple. You also give many examples to make it easier to understand. Not only me but most of the students really need that to help us following the lectures and see what is going on every day. I'm appreciate to be your student this semester and hopefully will be your student again in another math class. p/s: I am excited to hear your wonderful news and can't wait to meet your little angel! Congratulation
This was a great class, and I loved the teaching style Professor Rudman had. She always made sure that the concepts explained were clear and concise, even when the content was difficult. I wish I could take her as a professor for next semester's math classes!
Rudman is an absolutely fantastic professor. She slows down and makes sure that everyone understands the material. She breaks down complicated ideas into manageable chunks. She learned everyone's name in the lecture hall, and I was never afraid to ask a question even in a large class. encouraged students and encouraged them to be enthusiastic about what we were learning. Best professor I have had so far.
I don't think I can say how great Emily was throughout the semester. From day one, she was eager to teach us every topic with enthusiasm even though the class always seemed less than enthusiastic. She always took the effort to learn everyone's names and that just blew me away how she was able to do that and how much she cared. In her office hours, she was amazing to learn from and always wanting to help everyone.
Professor Rudman is the best math teacher I have ever had. She was super helpful and would always answer questions and emails outside of class. I learned so much from her this semester and I wish I could have her as my professor again.
Appreciated the teaching style and detail during lectures.
Great teacher who genuinely cared about her students learning. Kept the class interesting yet informative
